Unit 11 Put on your sweater

1 Listen and say

It is seven o'clock in the morning. Linda is ready for school.

Linda: Mom, what's the weather like today?
Mom: It's sunny.
Linda: Can I wear my new sweater?
Mom: Sure. Put on your sweater.
Linda: Look, Mom. Is it pretty?
Mom: Yes. It's very nice. But it's a little cold outside. Put on your jacket, too.
Linda: OK.

7 Little scholar

We are in the same world.
But we are different.

I am from Congo. It's very hot in our country.
I wear few clothes all year round.

We're from Egypt. Our country is hot and dry. We wear long robes. They keep us from strong sunshine.

I'm an Inuit. It's very cold in winter here.
We live in igloos. We wear heavy coats, gloves and boots. They keep us warm.

8 A proverb

Evening red, morning gray,
Sets the traveler on his way.
Evening gray, morning red,
Brings down showers on his head.

9 Fun story

What a Day!

My name is Tony.
I'm a little bear.
I live in a small house.

I have a brother.
He lives far from me.
I miss him very much.
I want to see him.

I turn on the TV.
The weatherman says,
"It's fine tomorrow."

The next morning I get up very early.
I put on my new T-shirt, pants and sunglasses.

It's a fine day. I'm very happy.
Suddenly it starts to rain.
I'm all wet. I feel cold.

I run to my brother's house.
A note on the door, "On vacation".
